

AMS Theater Club Brings the African Savannah to Amherst Middle School!

The Amherst Middle School Theater Club is proud to announce their production of Disney's

The Lion King Jr performing on March 16th and 17th at 7pm, and double performances on March 18th at 2pm and 7pm in the AMS cafeteria. All tickets are $5.00 and will be available at the Middle School's main office start February 1, 2017.

The cast at Amherst Middle School will thrill audiences of all ages with their portrayal of characters that are full of comedy, magic and unforgettable song and dance. While the crews will enthrall audiences with beautiful scenery, costumes and technical elements. Mrs. Fichera, Mrs. Hallett and Mrs. April are the new directing team at AMS along with Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. Ramm. They have been working with students in grades 5-8 since October to present a musical that shows off the acting, music and behind the scenes talent of over 100 AMS students.

Disney's The Lion King is a story of Simba, a young lion cub who travels through the Pridelands and jungle with his animal friends of all kinds to learn the meaning of love,

Three Hyenas and Scar

family, friends and of course what it means to be part of the "Circle of Life". Simba starts his journey waiting for his turn to rule, meets a couple of crazy characters with no worries, and returns home to battle with his power hungry uncle to take his rightful place. With recognizable songs like Hakuna Mattata, I Just Can't Wait to Be King, and Can You Feel the Love tonight, the Amherst Middle School students have a wonderful show to share! Join them on Thursday March 16th at 7pm, Friday March 17th at 7pm and Saturday March 18th at 2pm and 7pm. Look for additional ticket sales location information in February.
