

Annual Keyes Art Show Brings Works by Local Artists to Milford

Making the Grade pastel by Brenda Ferro

Saturday - Sunday June 6, 7

MILFORD - The Keyes Art Group Annual Art Show and Sale will be held on Saturday, June 6 from 10am-4pm and Sunday, June 7 from 10am-3pm in the Milford Town Hall and outside on the Oval, 1 Union Square, Milford. Admission is free. Meet the artists and browse original art, prints & notecards. Vote for your favorite painting. Purchases are commission free which helps support our talented local artists. The Keyes Art Group is a non-profit club and is sponsored by the Milford Recreation Department. Students can enter their original art for judging on Saturday morning by bringing 1-2 recent, framed or mounted pieces to the Milford Town Hall Auditorium between 8-9:30am. Entry fee is $1 per piece. Adult artists may submit art by pre-registration only, thank you. For more information, Carolee at 673-8283 or Laura at 673-2746 or email keyesart@yahoo.com.

Growth in this economy is worth noting, and expanding into a larger, new facility is better yet. GatherWorks, Inc., formerly of Brookline, out grew their office space and moved into a large suite at 3 Overlook Drive in Amherst off 101A. Invited to help cut the ribbon, Rick Boyd, Chairman of Souhegan Valley Chamber of Commerce, congratulated Fiona and Erik Strecker.

GatherWorks, Inc. is a private company founded in 2003 by CEO and Brookline resident, Erik Strecker. They deliver software and services that optimize how small to medium-size businesses can present, collaborate, train and sell using web-based tools, including GatherPlace, their hallmark voice and web conferencing service which enables simple remote presentations or webinars, training and support over the Internet.
