Door, Roof, Floor: Dwelling in Essays & Photographs, Poems & Art

Beginning this October, the Amherst Town Library is pleased to offer "Door, Roof, Floor: Dwelling in Essays & Photographs, Poems & Art." This year-long series, funded by the Friends of the Amherst Town Library, invites you to live in houses both familiar and strange, dark and light, near and far, through rich readings, lively conversations, and writing opportunities.

The fall series features an exciting interplay of essays and photographs. The contemporary essay uses language to design a dwelling for story, memoir, history, science, poetry, music, or myth. Like essays, photographs can capture daring forays into life as well as deeply reflective moments, offering us both unexpected pleasure and challenges. Mark your fall calendars now for discussions on Nov. 11, and a wordplay workshop on Nov. 16. Anyone is welcome to come to any or all sessions of the reading series. It is helpful, although not mandatory, that writing workshop participants have attended at least one discussion session in that genre.

Poems and paintings have long inspired each other, sharing a space lively with color, form, and feeling. Join us in March and April as we explore the power of poetry and visual art to open new doors to the many dimensions of being at home, and away.

Facilitator Emily Archer, who holds a doctorate in American literature and is a published writer, has designed this series in consultation with Ruslyn Vear, Head of Reference.

You can register by calling 673-2288, emailing library@amherst.lib.nh.us or by visiting the website at www.amherst.lib.nh.us and click on the calendar icon labeled "Calendar of Events" on the homepage.

New Book Club Formed at Amherst Library

Attention avid readers: Would you enjoy meeting other bookworms to talk about the books you read? A new discussion group--The Friday Afternoon Book Club--cordially invites you to attend its first regular meeting, November 20th, Friday afternoon, (1 to 3) in the library Johnson Room (downstairs).

You will be welcome to contribute to the book discussion, or to just come in and listen. Also, you may suggest books for future club reading.

The Friday Afternoon Book Club is sponsored by Friends of the Amherst Library in response to requests for a book club that hold meetings in the library.

At the upcoming November 20th meeting, the group will discuss "The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society," telling the history of a group of Channel Islanders during five years of Nazi occupation. This is a debut novel, a current bestseller written by the late Mary Ann Shaffer and completed by her niece, Annie Barrows.

Monthly meetings will be held in the Johnson Room next January through June. on the second Friday afternoons (1 to 3). Members will choose a different book to read each month. There will be no December meeting.

If you would like more information, please phone Beth Blodgett at 673-2506 or Linda Russell at 672-3614 or add your name to the membership sign-up sheet at the library circulation desk.

Bon Voyage to Miss Jackie

The Children and Staff of Country Village Montessori School of Amherst says "Bon Voyage and send us a postcard" to Miss Jackie an honorary member of our school family.

Miss Jackie from Amherst Town Library has been coming to the school once a month for four years to read to the Children's House (3-6 year olds). These visits complimented the extensive story telling and reading curriculum the school already had.

On her last visit on Friday October 23 Ms Jackie was presented with a bouquet of flowers and the children sang peace songs for her. Although the school family is sad to see Ms Jackie go they are happy that she is heading out on a great adventure. Miss Jackie and her husband are moving to France and will be travelling around Europe.

We would like to extend a warm welcome to Miss Jenny, who will take over from Miss Jackie and look forward to getting to know her.

Jackie Biger with Jennie Simopoulos, the new Head of Children Services.

Miss Jackie accepts a beautiful bouquet of flowers from children.

Sharing Christmas with "SHARE"

It t'is the season, to be merry and what could make us feel merrier but sharing with a local organization like SHARE. This year the women of the Amherst Garden Club have voted to collect food at each monthly meeting for SHARE, as well as donate the money raised from the "Memory Tree" to "Share Christmas". Anyone can make a donation to the Memory Tree and have the name of a loved one remembered, in the twinkling white lights on the tree. Deadline is December 10. Names and donations may be sent to AGC, PO Box 694, Amherst, NH 03031. For more information call Marti Warren 673-7054 or Sue Alger 673-5664.
