Sabers First Indoor Track and Field Meet This Saturday at Dartmouth

Souhegan track and field coaches John Eastman, Cathy Merra, and Jeff Wilson welcomed approximately thirty track and field athletes to the indoor track program at the first day of practice on Monday, November 30.

The boys' team features several returning competitors from last year's Class I Meet. Senior Mike Peret was second in the high jump, fifth in the 55 meter dash, and anchored the sprint relay. Sophomores Dennis Elverson (300 meters and relays) and Chris Chininis (long jump and relays) should also repeat as Class I performers. They will be aided by veteran seniors Grant Raymond and Matt Chareth, both in the 600 meters and relays. Junior Parker Hall returns to the 300 meters and the relays, and sophomore returnees include Bert DeForest (1500 and relays), Aaron Prescott (300 and relays) and Jim Velino (1000 meters). Sophomore James Tabor will put the shot and juniors Harrison Calato and Liam Murphy, both new to the program, will find their place in the sprints. Rounding out the boys' team are ninth graders Jacob Kittredge, Nathan Kittredge, and Jake Lawrence. All three are expected to help in the sprints and relays.

The girls' team also has several people returning from last winter's Class Meet. Sophomore Isabella Stuopis was fourth in the shot and should do even better this winter. Seniors Laura Tebbetts (55 meters and sprint relay), Molly Mirhashem (600 and long relay), Arianne Bennett (long relay), and Hillary Wilson (600 and long relay) are also veterans of the Class Meets and should continue to improve. Other senior veterans are Andrea Griffin (sprints), Chelsea Kelly (sprints) and Rachel Konkler (hurdles). Junior Kelsey Knight was eighth in the 55 meter hurdles in last winter's Class meet and had a successful spring season at the hurdles. Angela Blume and Csilla Vámos both were on last year's 4 by 800 meter relay that placed in the Class meet, and they will also do well in their individual middle distance races. The remaining veteran is junior Jade Humphreys (sprints and relay). Ninth graders Samantha Lott (sprints), Kaitlyn Maloney (middle distance), and Micaela Wilson (sprints and hurdles) will also help the program.

The Sabers will travel to Dartmouth College for their first meet of the season on Saturday, December 19.
