Business Survival in Tough Economic Times

NASHUA - Join the Greater Nashua Business and Professional Women's (BPW) organization at the Crowne Plaza in Nashua on September 16th, when Marilyn Bogue, Lead Lender Relations Specialist for the US Small Business Administration will speak about leading your company through difficult economic times. There are moves you can make to not only survive, but to emerge stronger and fitter and ready to grow.

Marilyn will talk about the counseling, networking, and financing resources and programs available to help small business owners in southern New Hampshire.

Marilyn Bogue recently joined SBA's New Hampshire District Office as Lead Lender Relations

Specialist. She is responsible for delivering SBA's programs and services to lenders and business owners throughout the state, with a focus on underserved markets such as businesses owned by women, veterans, exporters, and minorities.

The luncheon takes place on Thursday September 16th, from 11:00 am - 1:00 pm at the Crowne Plaza, Exit 8, Nashua, NH. The cost is $16.00 for members and $20.00 for non-members. An RSVP is not required. The meeting includes networking, buffet lunch, and speaker.

For additional information contact membership@bpwnashua.com or visit the web at <http://www.BPWNashua.com> or leave a message on our toll free 24/7 voicemail number: 866-816-6817.

Coldwell Banker Donates $6,225 to CASA

MANCHESTER - Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of New Hampshire received $6,225 from Coldwell Banker Team, a company formed by thirteen Coldwell Banker franchisees in New Hampshire. The donation is part of an ongoing partnership between with CASA. This year, $25 of every closing will be donated to CASA. The check presentation was made by Tom Tremblay, owner of Coldwell Banker LinWood Real Estate in the Loon Mountain Region and Manager of CBTNH, LLC.

"We are grateful for Coldwell Banker's continued generosity," said Marcia Sink, President and CEO of CASA of NH. "Partnering with their offices across the state helps raise awareness and provides financial support to assist CASA in achieving its goal of providing all New Hampshire's abused and neglected children with access to dedicated advocates and, ultimately, safe, per-

BOOK GROUP NEWS

October 4 - The Grapes of Wrath
The next selection in the Daland Memorial Library's 2010 adult book discussion program will "The Grapes of Wrath" by John Steinbeck. The book, published in 1939, is considered by many to be Steinbeck's finest and one of the main reasons he was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1962. The discussion will be held on October 4, at 9:30 a.m., at the library. Copies of the book are available at the library.

Library Director Karen MacDonald purchases a copy of each selection for the library collection. The complete list for 2010 is posted on the bulletin board in the library's foyer. Occasionally because of availability substitutions are made. Any title may be borrowed by a library patron, though a book that's to be discussed will be reserved for book group participants the month of the discussion. All are welcome to one or more discussions. Questions, call the library at 673-7888.

Book list for reminder of 2010

November 1 - non-fiction: "The Desert Queen: The Extraordinary Life of Gertrude Bell" by Janet Walsch

December 6 - poetry: Donald Hall, Jane Kenyon, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

*NOTE: because of availability this is a new selection
