AD Ken Bigley at the Helm of Saber Sports

AMHERST - "The quality of the coaches is exceptional here at Souhegan," says new athletic director Kenneth Bigley. "They are outstanding and give a lot of their time to the job. They're knowledgeable about their sport and go above and beyond."

Great words to hear from the new athletic director. He should know something about ADs since he grew up with an AD Dad.

Ken Bigley seems to be the right fit for Souhegan High School. He started his new job on August 1st. He was the athletic director at a Trevor Day School in New York City, which is a pre-K to 12th grade with 850 students. He is a graduate of University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Rapids, Iowa and did his graduate studies at Ohio University.

Ken had very little time to adjust to the high school. When he walked through the door on day one, he was responsible for 17 fall sports teams, schedules, traveling and coaches. Close to a third of the student population takes part in the fall sports schedule.

When asked if he had a favorite sport, with a quick smile he answered, "wrestling." He was a stand-out wrestler at UNI at 185lbs and twice qualified for NCAA Division I championships.

He is excited about the fall season with a championship football team going for their 4th straight championship in Division III. "I'm looking forward to night games in Saber

Denny Desseraulton a 37 year touchdown to cut the lead to 22 to 12. With 5:22 left in the contest, the Sabers cut the lead to 22-12 on a 30 yard field goal from TylerFord.

The Souhegan defense was strong throughout the contest. Keddy Battista had two interceptions for the Sabers.

The Sabers effort throughout the game was strong. The Souhegan squad will now travel to Goffstown for a Saturday game between two of the DivisionIII top teams.

Chris Chininis is off to the races after catching a screen pass.

Carly Lorden and Madison Little

Souhegan Football Managers

The Souhegan Football Team and Rachel Shatney, Athletic Trainer, would like to thank the team'smanagers Carly Lorden and Madison Little, both members of the junior Class, for all the hard work they do for the team. They spend each and every practice and game making sure the athletes arehydrated, taped, cared for when injured, and assist coaches with paperwork and other tasks. Theyhave great Saber spirit and awesome attitudes. It is often commented that "those managers aregreat" by fans, coaches, players and most of all by Rachel who appreciates all their hard work toassist her in the Athletic Training Room.THANK YOU CARLY AND MADDIE!!!
