PHOTOS BY EARLE RICH

A very successful day to celebrate spring in our town of Mont Vernon. From the Fire Department pancake breakfast to the blueberry pie eating contest, library book and plant sale to everything else, we spent the day with children and friends. The highlights are the road races and parade down Main street. These photos are only a small sample of all the activities going on. To view Earle Rich's entire photo collection, visit: www.flickr.com/photos/mvfotog/sets, and select Mont Vernon Gala 2012. The best way to enjoy them is to run a slide show and just let it run. As you see your own photos, you can send the link to relatives so they can see what happens in our town. These photos are given freely and without restriction as my contribution to the people of Mont Vernon, NH.

Mont Vernon Historical Society

Museum Open June 16 - Political License Plates Display

The Mont Vernon Historical Society Museum will be open on June 16, then again on the first and third Saturdays July through October from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This year a new display focuses on elections prior to 1960, this would be for the John F. Kennedy/Richard M. Nixon race and earlier, and also shows items relating to New Hampshire state and local elections. Of particular interest is a display of political license plates loaned by Mont Vernon resident Gerry Griffin. The exhibit will be held through October. Another new display this year features the Daland Memorial Library. The Arts and Crafts style building has served the Mont Vernon community since 1909. Permanent displays include memorabilia from the Grand Hotel and Lamson Farm. A row of Dutton clocks line a wall in the center space. The post office window and some of the boxes found a home in the museum when the new post office on Grand Hill Road opened in 1995. You might ask to see a sample of Boston Tea Party tea and ask how it came to be in the museum. A lovely King's Daughters' quilt given to the historical society when the organization disbanded includes a square that's over 150 years old. A small library holds a wide variety of books that may be looked at, unless too fragile, while visiting the museum. Admission is free.

The museum, located on the second floor of the Town Hall, opened in 1990.

Items at Fishbones' General Store

If looking for an historical society publication, sweatshirt, or T-shirt when the museum is closed, check out the selection at Fishbones' General Store.

Spring Gala at the Library a GREAT DAY!!!

Friends of the Library Meeting – Monday, June 25

The book, plant, "junque jewels", lemonade and water sales went very well at the Daland Memorial Library on Spring Gala Day, Saturday, May 19. Proceeds will be used to support library programs including the very popular children's summer reading program scheduled to begin later this month, passes to area museums for library patrons, the Teen Times program, the new Lunch and Afternoon Movie program, the Books for Babies program, treats for the many trick-or-treaters who visit the library on Halloween, and New Hampshire Humanities Council programs open to the community. NOTE: half of the plant proceeds will be divided between library garden maintenance and the care of Joanne Griffin's Memorial Garden at Lamson Farm.

The final tally will be announced at the next Friends of the Library meeting on Monday, June 25; at 7:30 pm. If interested in hearing the results and how the money will be directed, please attend. New members are always welcome. Questions call the library at 673-7888.
