Her Gym: Fun, Exercise, Coaching and A Chance to Win $1,000

Area Women Offered A 30 Day Trial With No Long Term Contract

AMHERST – Her Gym owner is so confident in his fitness system for women he is willing to put $1,000 on it.

John Terlizzi may not be in Mitt Romney’s category – remember he bet Texas Governor Rick Perry $10,000 during a debate – but he is willing to put his money where his mouth is too. Her Gym in Amherst is making an unprecedented offer to women who are willing to just try their system.

Any woman that does a 30-day trial before February 1 will be entered in a drawing to win $1,000. The 30 day trial has NO strings attached, just pay $19 and use the system for 30 days – at the end of the 30 days you can join the club or just walk away – no pressure just service.

Her Gym does not require any billing information when signing up for their 30-day trial so there really are no strings attached. Furthermore when a woman decides to “join” she is not locked into a “contract,” she can stop her membership anytime with just 30 days notice!

The whole experience really can’t get any easier or less intimidating. Her Gym is all about making women feel welcome, putting them at ease giving them a sanctuary from their otherwise hectic lives – remember Her Gym is Women Only – no men ever and no children either. This is her place to just be – no cleaning, no jockeying for the TV remote, all women all the time. And when time is an issue – Her Gym is available to members 24 hours a day 7 days a week – that’s right you get your own key.

So now is the time to make that New Year resolution without any risk (except the possibility of winning $1000) – now that will put a dent in your Holiday credit card debt.

Her Gym has a health coach on duty Monday through Friday 8 – 11 and 3-7 but all members are welcome to come in ANY TIME THEY WANT to exercise, talk with a health coach or just to get away – Her Gym is her sanctuary.

Call Terri today at 769-3388 and make your appointment to start your 30-day trial – you could win $1,000.

Her Gym is conveniently located at The Meeting Place 199 Route 101 Unit 5B across 101 from the Black Forest Café, next to the Amherst Post Office. Plenty of parking and a short drive from anywhere in Amherst, Milford, Mont Vernon, Bedford, or Merrimack.

The $1000 drawing will be held at 7 PM on Friday February 1 at Her Gym in Amherst – entrants must be present to win.

2012 Memory Tree

Remembering Loved Ones

The special tree located across the street from town hall on the Amherst Green, with its little white lights during the holidays, is the Amherst Gardeners’ “Memory Tree”. For a small donation, anyone may have a loved one remembered on the “Memory Tree”. It’s pretty special when passing by it in the evening to be reminded of your loved one.

IN MEMORY OF:

The Copson Family, The Dokmo Family, The Johnston Family, The Livingston Family, The Madigan Family, The Marsh Family, The Spiess Family, The Steinhaus Family, The James Quinn Family

Each year the donations from the tree have supported a number of community efforts. This year the donations will be going to SHARE. The Amherst Gardeners are pleased to be able to help in this worthy community endeavor and thank everyone who donated to the 2012 Memory Tree.

Amherst Land Trust, inc.
Open Space - Wildlife Habitat – Recreation

PUBLIC HEARING JANUARY 7 6:00 PM

The owners of three parcels located on Grater Road in Amherst have agreed to sell their interests as follows:

Parcel 6-20-1	5 acres to the ACC for $33,000
Parcel 6-20-3	5 acres to the ACC for $125,000
Parcel 6-20	18 acres to the ALT for $77,000
Merrimack parcel 5A-5	(1.4 acres) donated to the ALT

The Sellers have stipulated that the 4 transactions be consummated simultaneously. The funds for the ACC purchases will be taken from the existing ACC Conservation Fund and create no tax impact. The ALT funds are privately raised through donations and have been approved by the ALT Board of Trustees. The use of the Conservation Fund for land purchases requires the approval of the Amherst Board of Selectmen and the ACC with votes by each body to be taken following a public hearing.

Editor’s note: This Public Hearing occurred prior to publication of our January 8th issue. We are providing this information for your interest prior to this year’s budget analysis and vote.
