Summer Reading Program 2015!

Every Hero Has a Story

Daland Memorial Library Summer Reading Program 2015: Registration for the summer reading program begins on Saturday, June 6th from 8-1pm. Come early to sign up for a summer of arts & crafts, entertainers, prizes, storytimes and reading fun, all for FREE! Reach your reading goal and receive a $5 gift card to Toadstool Bookstore. Ages 0-18 welcome. Registration required. Space is limited.

Teen Summer Reading

Join us this summer for a teen only program full of crafts, movie marathons, pizza parties, prizes and giveaways! Grade 7 and up are welcome. Registration required! Space is limited for some activities. Registration begins Saturday June 6th from 8-1pm and continues through July.

Cookbook Club

If you Love cookbooks, cooking, and eating (and talking about cookbooks, cooking, and eating) this is the group for you! The Cookbook Club will choose one cookbook a month to read and meet at the end of the month for a potluck meal at the library. Members are asked to pick one recipe and make it for the group to taste. Cookbooks available to borrow at the library. Please be sure to let us know what you're cooking! June Meeting: Monday June 29th at 6:00pm. The June Title is: The Barefoot Contessa Cook-

Friends of the Library to Meet June 22

The Friends of the Daland Memorial Library will meet on Monday, June 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the library. The agenda will include the final tally on the proceeds on the sales at the library on Spring Gala Day held last month. There will also be an update on the summer's Children's Reading Program now underway, and other summer activities. Vice President Lori Meader will be presiding. New members are always welcome. Questions call 673-7888.

Morning Book Discussion Program

On June 29, library's morning book discussion program will focus on Toni Morrison's "The Bluest Eye." Published in 1970 it's Morrison's first book of note. The story addresses the issue of obsession with beauty and conformity through the main character, a young black girl, Pecola Breedlove. The discussion will begin at 10 a.m.

The group usually meets the first Monday each month. The meetings last an hour and a half to two hours. Participants take turns bringing a light refreshment. No attendance requirement - attend discussions that are of interest. The library purchases a copy of each selection that may be checked out by library patrons when the book is not reserved for the discussion. Copies of the books are made possible through inter-library loan and are available at the library.

The dates and list of books for the remainder of the year are as follows:

June 29 - fiction - "The Bluest Eye" by Toni Morrison

NO MEETING IN JULY

August 3 - non-fiction - "The Warmth of Other Suns: The Epic Story of America's Great Migration" by Isabel Wilkerson

September 14 - fiction - "The Daring Ladies of Lowell" by Kate Alcott

October 5 - fiction - "The Burgess Boys" by Elizabeth Strout

November 2 - fiction - "Emily, Alone" by Stewart O'Nan

December 7 - fiction - "Wishin' and Hopin': A Christmas Story" by Wally Lamb

The program is suitable for adults and open to Mont Vernon residents at no charge. For bookkeeping purposes, non-residents wanting to borrow a book will need to join the library, annual fee is $15. Questions call the library at 673-7888.

Museum Passes - Passes to TWO new Museums!

Passes to five museums are currently available at the library to library patrons. Three museums are free and two have a co-pay. Four are in NH and one is in Boston. ## Mont Vernon Historical Society News

Museum to be OPEN Saturday, June 13

The Mont Vernon Historical Society Museum will be open on Saturday, June 13 from 1-4 p.m. The museum is located on the second floor of the Town Hall on Main Street. It opened twenty-five years ago in 1990. The historical society museums in Amherst and Milford will be open at the same time. All three museums will then be open the second Saturday July through October.

This year exhibits of note include the "Key to Mont Vernon" presented to returning WWI veteran Harold A. Trow. Nine residents of Mont Vernon served in WWI. There will also be a display of old photos and newsletters from the Mont Vernon Village School, and a display of dresses worn by women in the mid-1900s. Ladies' hats from this period are on display as well. In addition, this year a small portion of the actual tea thrown overboard during the 1773 Boston Tea Party will be on display. The story of how it came to the museum will be on hand.

Other exhibits of interest include the window and a bank of mail boxes from the post office that was once located behind the general store, Lamson Farm and Grand Hotel memorabilia, two quite rare antique Nutter clocks, a row of eight David Dutton clocks, and a quilt made by the King's Daughters' organization that includes a square that is over 150 years old. There is also a small library in the museum and a selection of historical society books, note cards, and T-shirts for sale in the museum's store. There is no charge to visit the museum.

Consider supporting the museum by becoming a member. New members are always welcome. Annual dues are $10; lifetime dues are $100. Checks may be made out to Mont Vernon Historical Society and mailed to the Mont Vernon Historical Society, PO Box 15, Mont Vernon, NH.
