SWING! SWING! SWING! With USO Style

MID-SUMMER STARZ

On July 29, starting at 7PM the Manchester Community Music School is the place to be. A family friendly variety show based on the old USO camp show, will serve up great entertainment from the likes of the MCMS Summer Band, the Capital Jazz Combo and other ensembles, along with dancers, singers, including the vocal stylings of MB Padfield's father, Paul Padfield, former Miss New Hampshire Michelle Lamontagne, the buttery baritone sounds of Lloyd Owens, Boston recording artist Bill Andrews, and much more. Doors will open at 6 PM. Tickets are $20 for general admission, $100 for 6 general admission tickets, $30 for front VIP seating, and $50 for 2 front VIP seating. Tickets are available at the 2291 Elm Street school and on the www.mcmschool.org website.

Everyone is welcomed to celebrate with 1940's-style. Among featured music will be hits by Doris

Day, Nat King Cole, and Bing Crosby, as the MCMS takes guests on a “Sentimental Journey” with a big “Smile,” while “Swinging on a Star.”

Kids and adults alike will love the free ice cream, soda, meatballs and other goodies, provided by Sub-Zero Ice Cream and Yogurt, Coca-Cola and 900 Degrees Pizza among our sponsors.

So what is a USO camp show? USO stands for United Service Organization, which provides a bridge between the American people and the US Military. Its mission is to provide morale boosts through organized entertainment. The MCMS salutes this spirit with this event, inspired by the school's veteran clients and faculty. While all attendees will be entered in a free raffle, there will be a special “thank you” raffle for current and past military service personnel who wear all or any part of their uniforms.

Follow Me to the High-Plateaus of Himalaya, and the Corners of Central Park

The Jaffrey Civic Center is very pleased to announce a photography exhibit by Hue Way He of New York City in the first floor Auditorium Gallery beginning on Friday, August 7 and running until Saturday, August 29.

A violin playing kid;
An engineering student;
An advertising creative;
and finally,
A photographer!

“I try to capture the serene, and to a degree, surreal moments of our lives and environment. My subjects are mostly the cityscapes of New York City and landscapes of China, Tibet and Nepal. I intentionally display them side-by-side to highlight the contrast between two equally beautiful environs: one developed, civilized, mechanized; the other, natural, wild, elemental. All my works are photographed, processed, printed and finished by myself.”

The Jaffrey Civic Center is located at 40 Main Street, Jaffrey, New Hampshire, next to Library, parking in rear. Hours are Tues: 10-6, Wed-Fri 1-5, Sat 10-2. Admission is always free. ## Business / Health

The Bookside Café Now Open At The Toadstool Bookshop In Milford

MILFORD – When The Toadstool Bookshop relocated in the Lorden Plaza Milford from the lower building to the upper building the plan was always to include a café within the bookstore. The new location included a space that had previously been a café. That space has finally been remodeled and The Bookside Café is now open. An intimate part of the bookstore, the café welcomes book browsers as well as those just looking for a quick cup of coffee, tea, or pastries or a more substantial breakfast or lunch. Breakfast is available Monday through Friday beginning at 8 am and Saturday at 9 am. Among the breakfast sandwiches is “Green Eggs and Ham” with homemade pesto. Soups, salads, sandwiches and quiches are available for lunch. A popular lunch sandwich is the Veggie with tomato, spinach, onion, avocado, and sprouts with or without homemade hummus. The café closes at 4 pm.

The bookstore plans to tie its many author events in with opportunities provided by the café. For example recently author Linda Reilly was at the store signing and discussing her new mystery Fillet With Recipes. Included in the book is a recipe for “Tressa's Kooky Macaroni” which was served up by the café to the delight of the author and those attending.

Chef and manager Shannon Duncanson plans to source many of her offerings and ingredients locally including freshly roasted certified organic, shade grown coffee from A&E Roastery of Amherst. She will be serving teas from The Cozy Tea Cart of Brookline and using breads from The Good Loaf of Milford. Shannon was the owner of and sole baker at Union Square Provisions in Milford where she sold her baked goods and specialty foods. She has also sold her goods at local farmers markets. Her experience in the food service business extends back to 2006. To reach the café for inquiries by phone call the bookstore at 673-1734.

For more information call co-owner Willard Williams at The Toadstool Bookshop in Peterborough 924-3543 or call Shannon Duncanson at the store in Milford 673-1734.
